Innovations and New Features

In the spring, the editorial board began a new feature called Take 2 that was published in JoLLE's monthly newsletter. Take 2 is a JoLLE feature in which a current editorial board member selects an article from the archives and re-introduces it to the field. The article authors are invited to prepare a new commentary on their original article.

JoLLE Conference

The JoLLE@UGA 2016 Winter Conference was chaired by Helene Halstead, with the theme Lived Words and Worlds: Community Engaged Literacies. The keynote speaker was David Kirkland. Additional speakers, sj Miller and Michael Wenk spoke at the Friday conference kick-off event. Students from Chess and Community of Athens presented on Saturday by sharing about their community through poetry.

Awards

Peter Smagorinsky, JoLLE's Faculty Advisor, was awarded the UGA Student Organization Achievement and Recognition (S.O.A.R.) Award for Advisor of the year. This award recognizing how the faculty advisor went above and beyond the basic expectations of an advisor.

Manuscript Submission and Acceptance

In 2016, JoLLE received 76 manuscripts, and 69 of these were sent out for peer review. 50% of these manuscripts received do not publish decisions, 33% were revised and resubmitted, and 17% were accepted. The average turnaround time for manuscripts was 31 days.
